My Little Angel's Nursery Journal is a keepsake diary for a child's day carer to complete on a day to day basis. The main section of the book will enable the carer to record vital information that all parents need to know when they collect their child. A parent can review their child's daily activities and instantly know, what they have eaten, how much they have had to drink, what they have played with, how long they have slept etc.

Content:

- Security pages for the parents to fill in, so the carer will know who can collect the child.
- Pages for the parent to write down any allergies/foods they do not want their child to eat etc.
- A fun diary that will inform parents of their child's day.
- This excellent resource will prove very useful when preparing for parents Evenings and for writing school reports.

Suitable for teachers or carers of 0 - 5 year olds.
